As part of today's ceremony, the Naval Academy Class of 1956 is presenting all new officers a commemorative gift of their first set of Ensign or 2nd Lieutenant bars, inscribed on the back with the class years, " '56-'06".

A card is included with each set of bars:

*"Whenever two or three shall meet and old tales be retold . . .
. . . '56-'06: Another link in the chain"*

Nine distinguished members of the Class of 1956 were selected by their classmates to make these presentations.

Commander Garland O. Audilet, USN (Ret.)
Captain John H. Fellowes, USN (Ret.)
Captain J. William Flight Jr., USN (Ret.)
Major Kenneth H. Godstrey, USAF (Ret.)
Captain Gerald E. Green, USN (Ret.)
Colonel George Mushalko, USAF (Ret.)
Lieutenant Commander Paul J. Nelson, USN, (Ret.)
Colonel Clifford D. Peterson, USAF (Ret.)
Captain Theodore Byers Shultz, USN (Ret.)

This presentation forges a 50-year bond between these two classes as the Class of 2006 proudly joins the Navy-Marine Corps team of the 21st century, taking with them the proud traditions of the past.

It's not the critic who counts: not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles or where the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs and comes up short again and again, because there is no effort without error or shortcoming, but who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, who spends himself for a worthy cause; who, at the best, knows, in the end, the triumph of high achievement, and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least he fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who knew neither victory nor defeat.

NAVY BLUE AND GOLD

Now colleges from sea to sea
May sing of colors true,
But who has better right than we
To hoist a symbol hue:
For Sailors brave in battle fair
Since fighting days of old
Have proved the Sailor's right to wear
The Navy Blue & Gold.

Four years together by the Bay
Where Severn joins the tide,
Then by the Service called away,
We're scattered far and wide;
But still when two or three shall meet,
And old tales be retold,
From low to highest in the Fleet
We'll pledge the Blue & Gold.
